

POST GRADUATE DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH

PROGRAMME SPECIFIC OUTCOMES (PSOs)

The students of the M.A. English degree programme will be fully equipped:

UNDERSTANDING THE CONCEPTS & ANALYTICAL

PSO 1- To impart an in-depth understanding of classical and modern literatures and apply literary theories and criticism to read as well as re-read the literatures and other art forms of the world.

PSO 2 -To compare, analyse, apply critical study and debate towards arriving at solutions in literatures pertaining to various ages/centuries, countries and languages (in translation).

PSO 3- To provide a thorough knowledge of the nuances and the intricacies of language and communication through the study of linguistics, grammatical structures and components.

COGNITIVE

PSO 4-To identify and locate the sensitive areas by gaining an in depth knowledge of the contemporary trends, movements, addressing gender, marginalised and third world politics in world literature..

PSO 5-To analyse with an acute vision and incorporate literary theories and its aspects in various mediums like films and mass media.

PSO 6- To facilitate a thorough proficiency in English language and literature with enhancement of listening, speaking, reading, writing and research skills which in turn facilitates them to become qualified and employable graduates.

BEHAVIOURAL

PSO 7- To make the students evolve as well-rounded individuals with right attitude to life, social responsibility, humaneness and a far-sighted vision for an organic, holistic well-being of all the lives on earth.