DAY 5

On day 5, 28th February 2022 NSS Programme Officers and volunteers visited Padavettamman Temple, Radha Nagar Main Road, Zameen Royapettah. On arriving at the temple Dr.V.G.Shanthi explained the history of Padavettamman Temple to the NSS volunteers. NSS volunteers were provided with Gloves and necessary equipment for ensuring their safety. NSS volunteers were divided into several groups and they started to clean the temple. Amman sannadhi was thoroughly cleaned with water and detergents by the first team. Second team removed debris around big trees at the entrance. Third team cleaned the trays where the people used to light the Diyas at sannadhi. The fourth team was assigned the work of cleaning the garden area around the temple. The entire vast area within the compound was swept and cleaned by the fifth team. Our Volunteers had delicious Prasadam provided by the temple authorities.

DAY 5 - SDNBVC - NSS SPECIAL CAMP TEMPLE CLEANING

In the afternoon NSS volunteers created awareness on COVID appropriate behavior. They suggested the visitors of the temple to follow social distancing and to make use of mask as well as sanitizer. This was followed by Door to Door Campaign near the vicinity of the temple and distributed pamphlets on Personal Hygiene, Health and Sanitation to the general public by the NSS volunteers. On the whole, the temple visit was an unforgettable experience to the NSS volunteers as it was an opportunity for them to serve God.
