Navaratri is an annual Hindu festival observed in the honour of the goddess Durga. Being one of the prominent and rich festivals of India, the festival is for different reasons and celebrated differently in various parts of the Hindu Indian cultural sphere. To burn the devil and bring glory is being celebrated throughout the country. Navaratri has been a historic tradition within Tamil Nadu, with Lakshmi, Saraswati, and Durga goddesses as the focus.

The festival and dramatic enactment of the story is organised by communities in hundreds of small villages and towns, attracting a mix of audiences from different social genders and economic backgrounds. Dandiya is one of the major parts of Navratri celebrations in most of the northern parts of the country, to promote inclusivity and cultural exchange students perform Dandiya. Along with dandiya students also enjoyed a special DJ hour as a part of the Navratri Celebrations.
