

Event Report:

ETHNIC DAY-13.02.2023

To reconnect with our traditional and cultural roots and to remind us of age-old customs which shaped our civilisation, on this account Students' Union 2022-23 celebrated 13/02/2023 as Ethnic Day at Shrimathi Devkunvar nanalal Bhatt Vaishnav College for Women. This event turned out to be one of the best attempts at cultural reminiscence.

The event started with welcoming of our Vice Principal mam Dr.MS Lekha, our Judges Dr.K. Kanthimathi, Associate Professor, Department of English and G.Tamilselvi, Assistant professor, Department of Commerce, the union Bearers, the enthusiastic participants and the amazing and encouraging audience. The event was hosted by Harini A P, the Students' Union President (2022-23).

The event commenced at 10.30 am and participants from each department were asked to showcase the essence of Traditional culture and diversity of India through their fashion sense. The teams based on their lot numbers came forward to do a ramp walk to inscribe in all of us and beautify not only the dress but the culture as well.

All the departments excitedly took place in the event and finally two departments were chosen as the winners for this Inter departmental Competition. The Maths Department secured the first place with the Commerce department closely following on the leads winning the second prize.

In the era of the internet and social media, this event made it possible for all of us to it's easy to connect with people and get information about their cultural traditions.
