Capacity Development and Skills Enhancement Program for Students of English Literature on “After English, What Next?”

On September 17th, the keynote speaker Dr. John Sekar addressed the English majors of SDNB Vaishnav College for Women. The seminar was open to the students of English and approximately 200 students were in attendance. During the seminar, attendees asked and shared thoughts and questions respectively. The talk was built to an open ended question asked by one of the participants, what are the other career options apart from teaching?

Dr. John Sekar started by stating the perspectives of Parents and Government which are teaching doesn't involve risk and female teachers are kind respectively. Spokesman suggested the graduates of English to become a Content Writer, Reporter, Journalist, Editor, and Translator apart from being a Teacher. Appearing for Competitive exams is also one brilliant option given by the speaker. The vital aspects for other fields involve time, confidence, courage and imagination. He ended his speech with the aspects. Students were enlightened by the resource speaker.
