

Women's day celebration

08/03/2023

EVENT REPORT:

On March 8, 2023, Shrimathi Devkunvar Nanalal Bhatt Vaishnav College for women observed International Women's Day. The students were really excited to honour their professors and teachers on this significant occasion. The day began by thanking the teachers for their accomplishments and sacrifices by giving them some motivational quotations and treats, which made them feel joyful and proud. Var

The students also produced a video on the sacrifices made by women in society, in which Kayathri and Swathi, the association secretaries for history and maths department, met women vendors and sanitation workers in person and recorded their suffering. This video also included the suffering of teachers, and it was so skillfully delivered to the teachers that it brought tears of joy. To make them feel rested at least for one day from all their responsibilities, the Students Union along with the students conducted some fun and interesting games such as Pictionary, Dham charades, cup & the bowl, musical chairs, and so on.

It was enthusiastically participated in by teachers and professors from many departments, which made them feel content and relaxed. Finally, the students expressed their gratitude to all their professors and teachers for their contributions over the year.
