The Freshers' Day event commenced at 8:10 a.m. with a prayer song, setting a positive tone for the day. The dress code theme was "Retro," and everyone, especially the freshers, embraced it with enthusiasm. The emcees kept the energy high, actively engaging with the freshers throughout the event.

The program featured an array of performances, including dances and skits by various departments from both Aided and Shift 1. In addition to these performances, two group songs were conducted, adding a musical touch to the event. The freshers thoroughly enjoyed these performances, creating a lively atmosphere.

DJ Sparrow played music that kept the students energized and active throughout the event. A ramp walk show was also organized, showcasing students who dressed exceptionally well in line with the retro theme.

The event concluded successfully at 12:50 p.m., leaving everyone with wonderful memories of the day.
