Week 1: Unsung Heroes of Independence (29-11-2024)

Celebrating the legacy of India's Tribal freedom fighters

The first week of the Jan Jatiya Gaurav Varsh celebration was dedicated to honoring the unsung heroes of India's independence, focusing on significant tribal figures in our nation's history. Sangeetha and Shasmitha from B.Sc Maths Aided presented an engaging PowerPoint on Droupadi Murmu, and Vishaka from B.Com PA shared an insightful presentation on Bhagwan Birsa Munda. Their efforts brought to light the invaluable contributions of these tribal leaders.

Week 2: Whispers of the Wilderness (06-12-2024)

Celebrating the Rich Cultural Heritage of India's Tribal Communities

The second week of the Jan Jatiya Gaurav Varsh celebration was marked by a vibrant display of tribal dance performances by our students. The event, held in the Main Auditorium, showcased the rich cultural heritage of India's tribal communities. The colorful and energetic performances not only entertained the audience but also highlighted the beauty and diversity of tribal traditions.

Week 3: Voices of Valor (13-12-2024)

Showcasing Artistic Talents and Creativity

The third week of the Jan Jatiya Gaurav Varsh celebration featured a Poster Making Competition, where participants showcased their artistic talents and creativity. The posters highlighted the rich cultural heritage, traditions, and contributions of tribal communities. The event served as a platform for students to express their appreciation and respect for tribal cultures through visual art. The winners of the competition were by S. Nazriya Haseena from 2nd year M. Sc Counselling Psychology secured 1st place, K. Saranya from 2nd B. Sc Chemistry secured 2nd and Hemalatha. M from 3rd year B.Com PA won the 3rd place.

Week 4: Selfie Booth Setup (20-12-2024)

Capturing the Essence of Tribal Traditions

In the fourth week of the Jan Jatiya Gaurav Varsh celebration, a unique Selfie Booth was created by the Students Union members. The booth was designed to reflect the vibrant and diverse traditions of tribal communities, featuring traditional tribal attire, accessories, and props. Colorful tribal motifs and patterns added to the authentic and visually appealing experience. Students enjoyed taking selfies while embracing and celebrating the essence of tribal culture.

Week 5: The Silent Bond (20-21 December 2024)

Presenting "The Elephant Whisperers"

As part of the Jan Jatiya Gaurav Varsh celebration, the documentary movie "The Elephant Whisperers" was screened in the Main Auditorium on the 20th and 21st of December. The event was open to both Aided and SFS shift students. This documentary provided an insightful look into the lives of tribal communities and their deep connection with nature, particularly elephants. The screening was an engaging and educational experience for all attendees.

Week 6: Tribal Fest (27-12-2024)

Organized by: PG Department of Social Work and Student's Union

The event, hosted by the PG Department of Social Work and the Student's Union, was part of the Institution's Innovation Council initiative under the Ministry of Education.

The highlight of the week included two vibrant stalls:

1. Nila Organics by Vennila Mam, featuring organic products.
2. Jewelry and Accessories Stall, managed by Harini and Bakiya Lakshmi, offering a delightful collection of accessories.

These stalls provided an opportunity for students to explore and appreciate innovative and creative products inspired by tribal traditions.

Week 7: Tribal Fashion Walk (24-01-2025)

Valuable Insights into Indigenous Tribes and Tribal-Costumed Fashion Walk

On the 24th of January 2025, as part of the Jan Jatiya Gaurav Varsh celebrations, Sharmathi and Subulakshmi from the BBA department gave valuable insights into the indigenous tribes of India. Their presentation enriched students' understanding of the unique traditions, lifestyles, and contributions of these communities.

Following the insightful session, the tribal-costumed fashion walk commenced with enthusiastic participation from BBA and BCA students. The event highlighted the beauty and diversity of tribal attire, celebrating the vibrant cultural heritage of India's tribal communities.
