REPORT:

On February 5, 2025, the Language Debate Club of our college hosted a Tamil oratorical competition, which was a resounding success. The event commenced at 11.00 am with the presence of esteemed judge, Ms. P. Vijayarani, Assistant Professor, Department of Tamil (SFS).

In this competition 18 enthusiastic contestants delivered impressive speeches on the topic "□□□□ □□□□□□□□ (or) □□□□□□□□ □□□□". Each participant brought their unique perspective and vision. After intense deliberation, three exceptional talents emerged as winners. They received prizes for their outstanding performances. T. Saranya from I B. Com (General) won the I prize and II second is bagged by J. Annalakshmi from II BBA and the III prize won by A. Haripriya from II B. Com (General)

STRENGTHS OF THE PROGRAM:

This Interdepartmental competition encourages public speaking, communication and presentation skills. The constructive feedback from the experienced judges motivates the students to pursue careers in public speaking. Through preparing and delivering speeches, participants developed articulation, tone and body language and enhanced their personal growth and self -awareness

CHALLENGES:

As the registered participants are more in number, time limit given to them is reduced from 5 min to 3 min. The event might have conducted as rounds.
