TAKING RESEARCH BEYOND BORDERS: DR. DIVYA PRABHA P REPRESENTS SDNB VAISHNAV COLLEGE AT THE UNIVERSITY OF OXFORD

Dr. Divya Prabha P, Assistant Professor, Research Department of English (Aided), presented her research paper titled "Beyond Borders: Reimagining Identity and Belonging in Contemporary Migration Fiction" at the 10th International Conference on Advanced Research in Social Sciences (ICARSS 2026) held at Wolfson's College, University of Oxford, United Kingdom, from 23rd to 25th October 2026. Her research paper received a Highly Commended recognition at the conference in appreciation of its academic merit and scholarly contribution to contemporary literary studies. Her research paper explored the themes of identity, migration, displacement and belonging through a critical examination of Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie's Americanah and Mohsin Hamid's Exit West. Her participation and research presentation at this prestigious International Academic Forum brought laurels to the institution and provided an opportunity to represent the college on an International Platform. The Management, Principal, faculty members and students of SDNB Vaishnav College for Women take immense pride in her academic accomplishment and extend their heartfelt congratulations on this significant achievement.

